

STONE GENESIS GROUP

A rising tide floats all ships

Contents

About Us	3
Frontier Collection	4
Products	6
Installations	11
Autumn Collection	14
Products	16
Installations	22

A STONE SALES & MARKETING AGENCY

We provide expert sales and marketing services tailored to the stone industry. Whether you are sourcing natural stone for a design or seeking a low-risk sales force for your brand, we are at your service.

We support architects and designers through personalized engagement and accredited CEU courses.

Our representatives are available for on-site visits to share technical expertise and align our diverse product lines with your upcoming projects.

Pictured: Bluebell

FRONTIER COLLECTION

FRONTIER

The Frontier Collection embodies the rugged spirit of Montana with stones that balance raw natural beauty and refined craftsmanship.

Featuring bold textures and earthy tones, these selections are ideal for both interior and exterior applications that demand strength and authenticity. Each piece is chosen to bring a sense of permanence and grandeur to every project.

APONI

Ledge

Aponi is a versatile natural stone ideal for clients seeking a premium look with rich color variation. Mixing blue-greys, tans, and soft-browns with mineral accents create high-impact texture without overwhelming the space.

BLUEBELL

Ledge

Forged in the heart of the northern Rockies, Bluebell offers a refined, classic Montana look. Chocolates and blue-greys mix beautifully to create a clean, luxurious finish. An architect's favorite for make a timeless statement in stone.

ASPEN

Ledge

Aspen brings a clean, modern palette of soft greys, warm creams, and subtle taupe veining. Aspen's balanced color and crispness create a polished look that pairs beautifully with timber, steel, and glass. Aspen is ideal for clients who want a light, sophisticated stone that brightens any architectural space.

FRONTIER SANDSTONE

Ledge

Frontier Sandstone offers a rich, approachable palette of ambers, tans, beiges, and soft browns that bring instant character to any space, while varied shapes and organic textures lend a rustic-elegant feel. A standout choice for projects that call for warmth, texture, and natural appeal.

MONTANA MOSS Ledge

Montana Moss - Ledge brings warmth and movement through its blend of amber tones, tans, and greys, with a mossy-rich surface. This ledgestone adds vertical rhythm and a handcrafted feel, ideal for fireplaces, lodge-style exteriors, and landscape walls that need depth, natural variation, and the unmistakable beauty of Montana.

TALLULAH Ledge

Tallulah offers a harmonious blend of blue-greys, creamy-beiges, soft browns, and charcoal accents that feel hand painted by a Master Artist. Tallulah's unique, naturally varied surfaces add depth and sophistication that is nothing short of a Masterpiece.

MONTANA MOSS Mosaic

Montana Moss - Mosaic adds a rich, geometric look to it's Ledgestone counterpart creating a flowing, wildly organic pattern that feels hand-placed and deeply rooted in the landscape. The mosaic pattern offers a lived-in authenticity — perfect for creating artistry, without compromising rugged Montana character.

WHITNEY PEAK Ledge

Whitney Peak blends cool greys, warm neutrals, and naturally striated surfaces into a clean, composed aesthetic, with a balanced mix of rectangular and irregular forms to create a tailored look that still feels grounded in nature. Ideal for projects seeking a modern mountain feel with a touch of quiet sophistication.

WINTER WREN

Ledge

Winter Wren offers a sophisticated palette of blue-greys, creams, and soft browns, paired with varied textures and shapes to create visual interest while maintaining a cohesive, polished look. A versatile stone that adapts beautifully to contemporary, transitional, or lodge-inspired spaces.

Image: Bluebell, Ledge

Image: Aponi, Ledge

Image: Winter Wren, Ledge

Pictured: Chisholm Trail

AUTUMN COLLECTION

AUTUMN

The Autumn Collection captures the richness of the season across the varied landscapes of America. Selected for their inviting tones and natural variation, these pieces create unrivaled designs. Ideal for lakeside retreats, luxury estates, and unique commercial properties.

The Autumn Collection blends seamlessly with every architectural style, offering a sense of comfort and elegance that endures year-round.

ACIANO

Aciano is defined by a cool charcoal palette and structured, modern profile — a stone that feels intentionally composed rather than simply assembled. Subtle tonal shifts, crisp lines, and a lightly textured surface make Aciano a designer's choice when restraint and refinement matter.

CHISHOLM TRAIL

Chisholm Trail brings a refined old-west richness, blending sun-drenched golds, deep ambers, and weathered greys into a palette that feels both rugged and elevated. Bold texture and natural variation create a commanding presence, perfect for estates that want warmth with unmistakable sophistication.

BRINDLE HILLS

There's a timeless familiarity to Brindle Hills — a palette reminiscent of sunbaked canyon walls and old stone estates. Each piece tells a story layered in character, giving spaces a grounded warmth that feels both enduring and effortlessly lived-in.

CROSTIMBER

Crosstimmer commands attention with its striking mix of deep charcoals, steel blues, and warm rust-toned accents. The palette feels curated rather than chaotic, giving projects a dramatic, estate-level presence. Crosstimmer reads confident, architectural, and undeniably upscale.

MAGNOLIA

There's a sun-kissed glow to Magnolia, layered with warm earthy tones that read clean and contemporary. Magnolia's smooth, refined texture makes it ideal for luxury builds seeking the glow of a summer sunset, polished and full of depth.

PANHANDLE

Panhandle pairs warm neutrals with striking mineral accents, creating a surface full of depth and visual movement. Panhandle's balanced contrast makes it a designer favorite for upscale projects that feel both naturally rugged and impeccably polished.

MOONSCAPE

Moonscape delivers a moody, architectural palette of deep charcoal and shadowed greys, highlighted by soft tan accents. The contrast feels intentional and sculptural, creating a commanding, high-end presence. Moonscape is sleek, modern, and unapologetically bold.

RAINSTORM

There's a storm-born energy in Rainstorm. Dark-blue stones mingle with muted browns and slate-washed greys, reminiscent of heavy rain clouds. The look is raw yet elevated, bringing a sense of movement and atmosphere to any space. Rainstorm is a designer favorite for feature projects.

RAVEN

Raven's unique blend of blue-greys, cool slate tones, and warm mineral accents feel intentionally composed. The surface has a quiet precision — crisp edges, subtle shifts, and a polished depth that looks hand-crafted by a Master. Ideal for projects requiring clarity, confidence, and sophistication.

UMBER GULCH

Umber Gulch brings a rich blend of browns, soft greys, and weathered earth tones that feel rooted in majestic landscapes. Umber Gulch's warmth reads upscale without being loud, delivering a grounded, welcoming presence that feels both natural and meticulously curated.

RAVEN TUMBLED

Raven Tumbled softens its deep blue-grey and slate-washed tones into a more weathered, time-worn character. The edges are gently rounded, the surface subtly distressed, mineral accents settle into the texture, adding depth without tense contrast delivering an inviting, lived-in sophistication to any project.

WISTERIA SHORES

Wisteria Shores offers a modern neutral palette elevated by subtle mineral shifts and refined texture. Clean without being plain, warm without being too rustic — a versatile, designer-forward stone that brings understated luxury to both interiors and exteriors.

Image: Moonscape

Image: Rainstorm

info@stonegenesisgroup.com
<https://stonegenesisgroup.com>

1005 N Highway 183
Liberty Hill, TX 78642

